

When Things Go Wrong

Read Exodus 5:1–21, and then answer these questions:

1. When Moses did what God said, did something good happen right away?
2. Whom did the Israelites blame when they were told to work harder?
3. How did Moses feel when he obeyed God and the troubles of the Israelite slaves were made worse?

Sometimes things get worse before they get better.
In the end Moses led the Israelites to freedom.

Draw a scene with high mountains and also low valleys. Record the "ups" (happy times) and "downs" (unhappy times) in your life on your picture. If you keep on doing what God says, as Moses did, do you think you'll have more mountains or valleys?

Live It!
