

Family Favoritism

Read Genesis 37:1–11. Jacob showed that he loved his son Joseph the most by giving him a beautiful robe. The story says that Joseph's brothers "hated him." Joseph didn't help the situation by being proud about his dreams.

Do you ever feel like your parents love one of your brothers or sisters more than they love you? Ask your parents if they ever felt that way when they were young.

Read this Bible story out loud sometime and have your family talk about how Joseph and his father could have helped the family feel closer and happier.
