

Running Away

Whenever Isaac dug a well, other people wanted to take it from him. Every time, Isaac just let them take his well. How do you think Isaac felt? Do you think running away was a good thing to do? Why or why not?

Read Genesis 26:17–33 to find out what helped Isaac to stop running. Hint: The answer is in verse 24.

After God told Isaac not to be afraid, Isaac stood up to his enemy. In the end, instead of fighting, they made an agreement to be at peace with each other.

If anyone treats you the way Isaac was treated, talk to an adult friend about it. Be honest about how you feel. Pray and ask God to help you not to be afraid. Ask for ideas on how to solve the problem.
