

Finders Keepers?

Have you ever heard the saying, “Finders keepers, losers weepers”? It means that if I find something you lost—too bad. I get to keep it, and you just get to feel bad because you lost it.

Now read Leviticus 6:1–7. What do you think you should do in each of the following situations?

1. You find a five-dollar bill in the hall at school.
2. You borrow your friend’s good ink pen and forget to return it.
3. You discover that the jacket you brought home from the game isn’t yours.

What do you suppose God thinks about “finders keepers, losers weepers”?

Live It!
