

I Forgot!

"Tyler, did you take my hammer?"

Tyler nodded. "Yes, Dad. I had to fix a board in the dog house."

Dad looked angry. "Did you leave the hammer outside when you were done? Didn't I tell you when you used my tools to put them back again?"

"Oh, no," Tyler thought. Then he told his dad, "I'm sorry. I forgot."

Tyler didn't do wrong on purpose. But he did do wrong. You be the judge. Is Tyler guilty? Should Tyler be punished? Read Leviticus 4:22–31. What does it say about unintentional sins? (Unintentional means not done on purpose.)

Live It!
