

Being Content

Make a list of all of your favorite possessions. Be sure to include necessary things like your bed and your clothes.

Read 1 Timothy 6:6–10. What is really important in life is godliness (living like God wants us to) and having enough to eat and to wear. People who think they have to have more things to be happy are usually discontented no matter how much they have.

Look back at the list you made. Draw a line through each thing that you don't really need in order to be content.
