

How to Be Strong

"I can't," 11-year-old Trevor wailed. "I just can't do it." Trevor could be talking about: Telling the neighbors he has broken their window. Taking a hard test at school. Memorizing a long Bible passage. Going back to school after everyone has laughed at him. Standing up in front of everyone at church to read a Scripture passage.

If you were to say, "I can't do it," what would you probably be talking about?

Read 2 Corinthians 12:7–10. When you feel weak you are more likely to ask God for help. What will happen if Trevor asks God to help him with the situations listed above?
