

Stand Up for What Is Right

Many times we want to go along with our friends, even if our friends are doing something that is not right. Do you think it's better to just leave when that happens? Or should we tell our friends that what they are doing is wrong?

Read Galatians 2:11–16. What did Paul do when Peter and his Christian friends did wrong? If you follow Paul's example, what will you do when your friends do wrong?

Live It!
