

Discipline: Right or Wrong?

Pretend that you are a parent. Your children tell you they don't think it's right for you to discipline them. What can you find in Hebrews 12:5–11 to help you to explain why discipline is good instead of bad?

Ask a parent to read this passage too. Talk about these rules for good discipline: Discipline me because you love me, not because you are mad at me. Discipline me to help me do better, not to get even with me for what I've done.

Live It!

Hebrews 12:5–11