

Mercy

Read this story about Adam:

Dad gave Adam money to buy new shoelaces. Instead Adam bought candy. When Adam got home, he told his dad he had lost the money. Later Adam's dad learned the truth. He took Adam to the store and made him use his allowance to buy the shoelaces. Then he hugged Adam and told him he had done wrong but that he loved him anyway.

Read Hebrews 4:14–16. Do you think Jesus would approve of what Adam's dad did? Why, or why not?

Read this Bible passage to one of your parents. Then act out the story of Adam, with you being Adam. Try different endings. Decide together what Jesus would do if he were your parent.

Live It!

Hebrews 4:14–16