

Praying for Others

Paul had never been to Rome, but he prayed for the Christians there “constantly” and “at all times.”

Get the address of a missionary family your church helps to support. Write and ask them to send you letters about their work. When you pray at bedtime, pray for that missionary family as well as for your own family and friends.

Live It!

Romans 1:8-10