

Choose Friends Wisely

Make a friendship list. Write down the names of two or three close friends. Now write some things that a good friend does or does not do. Here are some ideas: A good friend understands when you have a bad day. A good friend doesn't make fun of you. A good friend helps you and won't leave you when you're in trouble.

Read Ruth 1:11–2:3. Ruth was a good friend to Naomi. When they both lost someone they loved, Ruth stayed with Naomi. She made her home with Naomi and kept her company.

Keep looking at your friendship list. Let it help you to choose your friends wisely and treat them well.
