

Just Say No

Read Titus 2:11–14. It tells us that Christians should say no if they are urged to do something wrong. What are some things kids should say no to?

Look in a mirror and practice saying no. Try saying no with a smile. Try to look very serious when you say no. Try an angry look with your no. Which do you think is the best way to say no?

Tell your mom or dad some things you plan to say no to. Ask them which of the looks you've practiced is the best to use when you say no.
